Elective Session Descriptions

Motivating Achievement/Club Success Plan

Learn how the Toastmasters Educational program ties into the Distinguished Club Program and how they combine to help you club and members succeed in Toastmasters and in their daily lives.

Judges Training

Get trained as a Contest Judge – learn the rules and procedures that are followed. You'll learn important information for Judges, Club Officers, and Contestants.

Attracting New Members to Your Club

Are you struggling with building membership in your club? Through this session, you'll receive valuable concepts and practices for membership building in your club, as well as tools and techniques for implementing them in your club's unique environment.

Goal Setting and Planning

To you lead a team of 1, 10, or 100? Learn the processes leaders use to set goals and develop plans to help you and your team achieve those goals.

Social Networking for Clubs

Social Networking sites such as Facebook, Twitter and YouTube are growing in popularity, and worldwide more clubs (Toastmaster and otherwise) are using them to find, attract, and keep members. Learn the basics of how to use these sites to publicize your club and connect with your target audience.

Effective Evaluations

Do you give evaluations in your club meetings? Not just for Goldilocks, giving evaluations that aren't "too hot" or "too cold" can make all the difference in the speaker's progress. Learn methods to give an evaluation that benefits the speaker, the audience and yourself.

How To: Speechwriting

Learn about methods to improve your speech preparation skills, such as selecting a topic, audience analysis, and putting it all together.

Special Lunch Event: Impromptu Speaking

Did you know that no "Table Topics" contest winner has ever gone in cold? By preparing for what you could be asked, you'll not only be better prepared for that next contest, but more importantly for that next hallway drive-by at work, and even that next interview.
